

Section 7 - Serious Incident Reporting to the Charity Commission

1 minutes read

Last updated: 15 July 2021

Version: 1

Requirements

7.1 Those communities which are charities (or are overseen by and accountable to a charity) have a duty to report any serious incidents (including safeguarding) to the Charity Commission and should do so in accordance with the House of Bishops' Serious Incident Reporting Guidance for Religious Communities.

7.2 This is in addition to reporting the safeguarding incident to the DSA.

Good practice advice

For further information on how to identify and report a Serious Incident to the Charity Commission, please see the Guidance for Religious Communities

This document is version 1 and was printed on 04 June 2023. The most up to date version of this policy can be found on the Church of England website: <https://www.churchofengland.org/safeguarding>

Source URL: <https://www.churchofengland.org/safeguarding/safeguarding-e-manual/safeguarding-religious-communities/section-7-serious-incident>