

GENERAL SYNOD

SINGLE TRANSFERABLE VOTE (AMENDMENT) REGULATIONS 2004

In pursuance of the power conferred by Standing Order 120(b) enabling the General Synod to make rules for the conduct of elections by the method of the single transferable vote, the General Synod hereby resolves that the Single Transferable Vote Regulations 1990 and 1998 shall be amended as follows –

1. In regulation 13 (Constraints on the choice made by electors) leave out paragraph (6) and insert -
  - “(6) If the value credited to two or more candidates is, at the same time, equal to or greater than the quota, they shall be taken in order, largest first, in determining whether they should be deemed elected for the purposes of achieving a conformant result. If two or more candidates have equal values, the order shall be determined in the same way as for equal surpluses as defined in Regulation 10(1).”.
2. (1) These Regulations may be cited as the Single Transferable Vote (Amendment) Regulations 2004 and these Regulations and the Single Transferable Vote Regulations 1990 and 1998 may be cited as the Single Transferable Vote Regulations 1990 to 2004.
  - (2) These Regulations shall come into operation on the fourteen day of February 2004.
