God in Fragments

Worshipping with those living with dementia

ROBERT ATWELL, JOANNA COLLICUTT,
JULIA BURTON-JONES, DAVID RICHARDSON,
SUE MOORE AND MATTHEW SALISBURY
AFTERWORD BY SAMUEL WELLS

Each year, almost a quarter of a million people are diagnosed with dementia in the UK and, as the average age of congregations continues to rise, creating accessible worship for individuals and families affected by dementia is becoming increasingly important.

God in Fragments combines liturgical, pastoral, psychological and professional wisdom to create a volume that all engaged in pastoral ministry will find invaluable. It offers theological reflection and many practical suggestions for using liturgy, music and tactile forms of prayer and worship to help unlock the gates of memory and enable active participation.

The Liturgical Commission is pleased to invite members of Synod to the launch of God in Fragments: Worshipping with those living with dementia.

Room 1, Wednesday 12th February at 1.30pm

A buffet lunch will be provided.

Please email your name and Synod number to sue.moore@churchofengland.org

Thy Kingdom Come 2020

“I can hardly remember anything that I’ve been involved in which I have sensed so clearly the work of the Spirit as Thy Kingdom Come”

Archbishop Justin Welby

In just three years God has grown Thy Kingdom Come from a dream of possibility into a movement. In 2019 Christians from 172 countries took part in praying ‘Come Holy Spirit’, so that friends and family, neighbours and colleagues might come to faith in Jesus Christ. This praying together has been across our diversity and differences as every person, household and church are encouraged to pray in their own way. Whilst an astonishing 92% of people said they were praying for family and friends to come to faith in Jesus, and 40% of those taking part in 2019 did so for the first time, we recognise there is much more we can do together to help Thy Kingdom Come be fully in the lifeblood of the Church of England.

You are invited to a special fringe event to seek the input of General Synod members as to how best Thy Kingdom Come can build on what God has done in the coming decade. Help us hear together how the Spirit is calling us. The fringe will be hosted by the Archbishop of Canterbury, with input from and questions to members posed by a range of departmental leaders in the National Church Institutions. Come and both be encouraged and inspired at what God has done and help shape the future of this movement of prayer.
