DRAFT of a Measure to enable provision to be made for the purpose of removing or reducing burdens resulting from ecclesiastical legislation; and to enable provision to be made for the purpose of facilitating consolidations of ecclesiastical legislation.

Legislative burdens

1 Power to remove or reduce burdens

- (1) The Archbishops' Council may by order make provision which it considers would remove or reduce a burden, or the overall burdens, resulting directly or indirectly for any person from ecclesiastical legislation. 5
- (2) "Burden" means –
- (a) a financial cost,
 - (b) an administrative inconvenience, or
 - (c) an obstacle to efficiency.
- (3) "Ecclesiastical legislation" means any of the following or a provision of any of them – 10
- (a) a Measure of the General Synod (whether passed before or after the commencement of this section);
 - (b) a Measure of the Church Assembly;
 - (c) a public general Act or local Act in so far as it relates to matters concerning the Church of England (whether passed before or after the commencement of this section); 15
 - (d) any Order in Council, order, rules, regulations, directions, scheme or other subordinate instrument made under a provision of –
 - (i) a Measure or Act referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c), or 20
 - (ii) a subordinate instrument itself made under a provision of a Measure or Act referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c).
- (4) For the purposes of this section, a burden may result from – 25
- (a) inconsistencies or anomalies in ecclesiastical legislation, or
 - (b) the form of ecclesiastical legislation (for example, where the legislation is hard to understand).
- (5) The provision that may be made by an order under this section includes (subject to section 3) – 30
- (a) provision abolishing, conferring or transferring, or providing for the delegation of, functions of any description (including a function of legislating),
 - (b) provision creating a body or office, and
 - (c) provision amending, repealing or revoking an enactment.

- (6) The consequential provision which may be made in an order under this section in reliance on section 8(1) includes provision to abolish a body or office.

2 Preconditions

- (1) The Archbishops' Council may include provision in an order under section 1 only if the Council considers – 5
- (a) that the policy objective intended to be secured by the provision could not be satisfactorily secured by non-legislative means,
 - (b) that the effect of the provision is proportionate to the policy objective,
 - (c) that the provision, taken as a whole, strikes a fair balance between the public interest, the interest of the Church of England as a whole and the interests of any person adversely affected by the provision, 10
 - (d) that the provision does not remove any necessary protection,
 - (e) that the provision does not prevent a person from continuing to exercise a right or freedom which that person might reasonably expect to continue to exercise, and 15
 - (f) that the provision is not of constitutional significance.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to provision which merely restates an enactment.

3 Exceptions

- (1) An order under section 1 may not make provision amending or repealing a provision of – 20
- (a) the Submission of the Clergy Act 1533;
 - (b) the Appointment of Bishops Act 1533;
 - (c) the Suffragan Bishops Acts 1534 to 1898;
 - (d) the Act of Uniformity 1662;
 - (e) the Church of England Assembly (Powers) Act 1919; 25
 - (f) the Synodical Government Measure 1969 (but see subsection (4));
 - (g) the Church of England (Worship and Doctrine) Measure 1974;
 - (h) this Measure.
- (2) An order under section 1 may not make provision of a kind to which Article 7 or 8 of the Constitution of the General Synod applies. 30
- (3) An order under section 1 may not make provision to extend, reduce or alter the purposes for which the Church Commissioners may make payments from their general fund.
- (4) The reference in subsection (1)(f) to a provision of the Synodical Government Measure 1969 does not include a reference to a provision which relates merely to the constitution or functions of diocesan or deanery synods. 35
- (5) The exceptions under subsections (1) to (3) do not apply to provision made in reliance on section 8(1) (consequential, supplementary, etc. provision).

4 Consultation

- (1) If the Archbishops' Council proposes to make an order under section 1, it must consult – 40
- (a) the members of the General Synod,
 - (b) persons who have or exercise functions to which the proposals relate,

- (c) persons who do not come within paragraph (b) but whose interests would nonetheless be substantially affected by the proposals, and
 - (d) such other persons as the Council considers appropriate.
 - (2) For the purposes of complying with the duty imposed by subsection (1)(b) or (c), it is sufficient for the Council to consult with organisations which appear to it to represent persons of the description in question. 5
 - (3) If, as a result of consultation under subsection (1), it appears to the Council that it would be appropriate to change the whole or part of its proposals, it must undertake such further consultation on the changes as it considers appropriate.
 - (4) If, before the commencement of this section, consultation was undertaken which, had it been undertaken after that commencement, would to any extent have satisfied the requirements of this section, those requirements are to that extent to be taken to have been satisfied. 10
- 5 Laying proposals before the General Synod
- (1) If, after the conclusion of the consultation under section 4, the Archbishops' Council considers it appropriate to proceed with the making of an order under section 1, it must lay before the General Synod a draft of the order together with an explanatory document. 15
 - (2) The explanatory document must –
 - (a) introduce and give the reasons for the provision contained in the order, 20
 - (b) explain why the Council considers that the conditions in section 2 are (so far as relevant) satisfied,
 - (c) include (so far as appropriate) an assessment of the extent to which the provision contained in the order would remove or reduce burdens as defined by section 1, 25
 - (d) give details of –
 - (i) the consultation undertaken under section 4,
 - (ii) the representations received in response, and
 - (iii) the changes (if any) made as a result of those representations.
 - (3) Where a person making representations in response to consultation under section 4 asks the Council not to disclose the representations, the Council must not disclose the representations under subsection (2)(d)(ii) if or to the extent that doing so would be an actionable breach of confidence. 30
 - (4) If information in representations made by a person in response to consultation under section 4 relates to another person, the Council is not required to disclose the information under subsection (2)(d)(ii) if or to the extent that –
 - (a) it appears to the Council that disclosing the information could adversely affect the interests of that other person, and
 - (b) the Council has been unable to obtain the consent of that other person to the disclosure. 40
 - (5) Subsections (3) and (4) do not affect a disclosure that is requested by, and made to, the committee established under the Standing Orders of the General Synod in accordance with section 6 for the purposes of its consideration of the draft order.

6 Scrutiny and amendment

- (1) The General Synod must make provision in its Standing Orders for the establishment and procedure of a committee the function of which is to consider and report to the Synod on draft orders laid before it under section 5.
- (2) The provision under subsection (1) must— 5
 - (a) provide for the membership and chairing of the committee;
 - (b) provide for every draft order laid before the General Synod under section 5 to be referred to the committee;
 - (c) enable members of the General Synod to make representations to the committee on a draft order referred to it; 10
 - (d) enable the committee to amend a draft order referred to it.
- (3) Following a report by the committee on a draft order, the General Synod—
 - (a) may approve the draft order with such amendments as the committee has made to it,
 - (b) may reject the draft order, or 15
 - (c) may refer the draft order back to the committee.
- (4) Where a draft order is referred back to the committee under subsection (3)(c), the Standing Orders of the General Synod are to apply to the draft order as if it were a draft order being referred to the committee for the first time.
- (5) The Standing Orders may include provision for giving further effect to subsections (3) and (4). 20
- (6) Where a draft order is approved by the General Synod under subsection (3)(a), the Archbishops' Council may make an order under section 1 in the form of the approved draft; and the Council may do so by applying its seal.

Consolidation 25

7 Pre-consolidation amendments

- (1) The Archbishops' Council may by order make such amendments of the enactments relating to a particular area of ecclesiastical law as it considers would facilitate, or would otherwise be desirable in connection with, the consolidation of any of those enactments. 30
- (2) An order under this section may include provision which has retrospective effect in so far as the purpose of the provision is—
 - (a) to remove a doubt, or
 - (b) to remove an anomaly not of substantial importance.
- (3) An order under this section must be laid before the General Synod. 35
- (4) An order under this section does not come into force unless—
 - (a) it is approved by the General Synod, whether with or without amendment, and
 - (b) a Measure is passed consolidating the enactments amended by the order (with or without other enactments relating to the area of law concerned). 40
- (5) If such a Measure is passed, the order is, by virtue of this subsection, to come into force immediately before the Measure comes into force.

- (6) If the Business Committee of the General Synod decides that the Synod does not need to debate an order under this section, the order is deemed to be approved by the Synod unless notice is given by a member of the Synod in accordance with its Standing Orders that –
- (a) the member wishes the order to be debated, or 5
 - (b) the member wishes to move an amendment to the order.

General and final provisions

8 Orders

- (1) An order under section 1 or 7 may contain consequential, supplementary, incidental, transitional, transitory or saving provision (including provision which amends, repeals or revokes an enactment or other provision). 10
- (2) Where an order under section 1 or 7 amends, repeals or revokes a provision which extends to the Isle of Man, the order may provide for the amendment, repeal or revocation –
- (a) to have effect in the Isle of Man without exceptions, adaptations or modifications, 15
 - (b) to have effect in the Isle of Man subject to such exceptions, adaptations or modifications as the order specifies, or
 - (c) not to have effect in the Isle of Man.
- (3) An amendment, repeal or revocation made by an order under section 1 or 7 to a provision which extends to the Isle of Man is also subject to such exceptions, adaptations or modifications as an Act of Tynwald, or an instrument made under an Act of Tynwald, may specify; and such provision may have effect in addition to, or instead of, provision made in the order for the purposes of subsection (2) of this section. 20 25
- (4) The power to make an order under section 1 or 7 is exercisable by statutory instrument; and the Statutory Instruments Act 1946 applies –
- (a) as if the order had been made by a Minister of the Crown, and
 - (b) as if this Measure were an Act of Parliament providing for the instrument containing the order to be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament. 30
