Codes for Liturgical Texts

In the Acknowledgements and List of Sources, the liturgical texts in the resource sections of this book (other than Collects and Post Communion) are identified by means of a code modelled on those used for the seasonal material in Common Worship: Times and Seasons – for example, NC.AI.

The first part of the code, which identifies the Festival, Lesser Festival, Common or Special Occasion, corresponds to the ‘season markers’ in Times and Seasons.

The second part of the code consists of a letter (indicating the type of material – for example, Invitations to Confession, Kyrie Confessions, and so on) and an individual number. The letters are those used for the same type of material in Times and Seasons. Texts for Special Occasions that were included in the corresponding section of Times and Seasons have the same code and number as in that volume.
