

The Friday mailing (fm) serves a diverse constituency of educators, leadership practitioners, discipleship enablers, jobbing ministers and fancy titled coach/facilitators working across the church.

The purpose of fm is to signpost articles, resources, events and research that stimulate reflection on the breadth of learning the church engages in; within worshipping communities, pioneering & mission contexts and the public square. This includes the continuing ministerial education and formation work in dioceses, courses and colleges. fm is compiled by staff in the Archbishops' Council's Ministry and Evangelism & Discipleship teams, but relies on community members to send us the appropriate news and views.

To sign up to fm use the form below. Please let others know about #fm_learning and send ideas, articles, research, event news and job opportunities for us to post on.
