

Ordained Baptist Minister, Diocese of Southwark.

I am married to Peter and have three adult children and an elderly dog called Fluffy.

I have experience in mentoring a wide age range of people both in and out of Church context and in varying denominations.

Before Training in Ministry, I was a Solicitor specialising firstly in Trade Marks and then Family Law. I grew up in the Anglican faith, and celebrate diversity.

I enjoy study and completed the Certificate in Reflective Practice and Pastoral Supervision at Spurgeon's College. I feel those in Ministry or being called into Ministry need to have a strong support system surrounding them. I enjoy attending my local gym, when time permits and spending quality time with my family and friends. I have a passion for social justice, and equality.

My mentoring style is to provide a listening, and supportive environment, whilst the mentee discerns God's direction.

I am a flexible Mentor happy to mentor individuals in person or online.
