

The Pensions Board itself acts as a trustee to the pension schemes and charities, and typically meets five times a year.

There are 12 members, with the Chairman appointed by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York with the approval of Synod. The remaining members of the Board are either elected or appointed by the members and employers of the pension schemes, and other interested bodies.

Current board members (at 1 July 2021)

Chair - appointed by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York with the approval of Synod

Clive Mather

Appointed by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York

Emma Osborne

Roger Boulton

Ian Wilson

Appointed by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York after consultation with the Church

Commissioners and Dioceses

Nikesh Patel

Appointed by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York after consultation with the Chair of the Church of England Appointments Committee and the Prolocutors of the Convocations of

Canterbury and York

The Revd Caroline Titley

Appointed by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York after consultation with the Chairs of the Church of England Appointments Committee and the General Synod's House of Laity

Tony King

Elected by the members of the Clergy pension schemes

The Revd Eleanor Robertshaw

The Revd Hugh Lee

Elected by the members of the Church Administrators Pensions Fund

Maggie Rodger

Elected by the members of the Church Workers Pensions Fund

Michaela Southworth

Elected by the employers participating in the CAPF and the CWPF

Richard Hubbard

Â

All Trustees and Committee members follow an agreed Code of Conduct.

Source URL: <https://www.churchofengland.org/about/leadership-and-governance/church-england-pensions-board/pensions-board-membership>