

The Women's Continuing Ministerial Education Trust (WCMET) exists to support the ministerial development of women in the Church of England and the Scottish Episcopal Church. We administer the provision of grants to female clergy, female accredited lay workers, and religious sisters in England and Scotland in need of financial support for their continuing training.

Woman, talking from Guildford Cathedral lectern

Diocese of Guildford

Register your interest in WCMET funding to support your training below. If you are, for any reason, unable to complete the form please contact wcmnet@churchofengland.org

- 1 Current Personal details
- 2 Your course or project
- 3 Preview
- 4 Complete

1 of 4

Indicates required field

Full name

Address

Postcode

Email

Phone number

Please complete all of the following which apply to you.

Date of admission as licensed lay worker

Date of profession as a religious sister

Date of ordination as deacon

Date of ordination as priest

Diocese

Next Page >

The Women's Continuing Ministerial Education Trust provide grants to assist women in the pursuit of their professional development. Retreats and Sabbaticals will not normally be considered, however, wherever possible, funding towards the cost of the fees will be awarded. Initial Ministerial Education courses are not part of the Trust's remit and funding towards such ventures will be given only in exceptional circumstances.

Related

Ministry development

Research and good practice to support flourishing ministry, including our Living Ministry research project and our work with Transformations for Ordained Women.

Developing lay ministries

Serving Together is about releasing the gifts of all our ministers, by building up lay ministers throughout the Church.

Source URL: <https://www.churchofengland.org/resources/diocesan-resources/ministry/womens-continuing-ministerial-education-trust>