

The Bishop of Doncaster, Sophie Jelley, reflects on the voices of children and young people.

Kwame Akuffo, a member of the Commission, describes how by working on the Commission, he has deepened relationships.

Dez Brown, founder and CEO of Spark2Life, talks about his personal journey as a member of the Commission.

Ascension Church in Newham is a great example of the Church of England in the local community. Here the Revd Dave Chesney talks about the after school activities organised by Ascension Church and the local community café they run.

Bonny Downs in the London Borough of Newham is a wonderful example of the kind of community work that the Commission has recommended. Stacey Cordery talks about the ethos of Bonny Downs.

We interviewed three of the parents who have been coming to Bonny Downs on a regular basis.

Source URL: <https://www.churchofengland.org/about/archbishops-commissions/families-and-households/videos>