

Consultations on the proposals for the future of the closed church of St Peter, Prickwillow in the diocese of Ely

The proposals provide for the building to be sold for use as an arts studio and/or for residential use and/or cultural and community uses.

You can see the draft Scheme plan and accompanying explanatory note below. Anyone may make representations for or against the draft Scheme

The representations received concerning the draft scheme were considered at the meeting of the Commissioners' Mission, Pastoral & Church Property Committee on Wednesday 18 December.

The Commissioners have determined that the scheme should proceed as drafted notwithstanding the representation received against it.

A full statement of the reasons for the Commissioners' decision will be sent to all those who made representations early in the New Year.
