

The Church of England Pensions Board is a registered charity. The Trustees are very grateful to those who support our work through donations or remembering the Pensions Board in their Will.

Donations and legacies support our charitable activities, particularly providing and maintaining housing for Clergy in retirement.

Find out more information on how to leave a legacy to the Pensions Board.

The Church Legacy website shows other ways in which you can support the Church of England through a legacy.

Source URL: <https://www.churchofengland.org/PBLegacies>