

I am of British Nigerian lineage, born in Leeds, lived in Nigeria for 20 years of my life. This experience of living over there has affected my churchmanship. Been back in the UK for over 20 years. I am flexible across Church traditions I will be comfortable in Anglo-Catholic and Evangelical wings of the church. I have been a licensed reader since 2008. Being in my current parish of Harpurhey an inner city parish since 2012. Currently, a church warden and a deanery synod representative.

Currently, finishing a Master’s in Information Systems. Working in Security mainly in Job Centres and in event management.

Love going to the cinema, watching soap operas, travelling and singing.

I speak English and fluent in Edo Language.

With notice, I can meet on Saturdays or evenings. First meeting would ideally be on a Saturday
