

We take seriously our responsibilities as an investor; in addition to screening and ethical exclusions, we have a longstanding track record of active ownership. This includes voting and engagement across a range of ESG and corporate governance matters, including executive remuneration, Board diversity, carbon emissions and the extractives industry.

Click here for our latest Ethics and Engagement, and Stewardship report and Voting disclosure.

In 2019, we:

Voted on 35,180

resolutions at 2,409 company meetings in 53 different markets

Voted against company management on 17.8%

of all resolutions at company meetings

Exercised case-by case judgment on approximately 1,000

resolutions

Source URL: <https://www.churchofengland.org/about/leadership-and-governance/church-england-pensions-board/pensions-board-investments/voting-and>