

Working for the Church of England

A future you'll love

scroll down

Find a future you'll love by working for the Church of England across a wide range of different jobs and locations throughout the United Kingdom.

Further information and national vacancies

The National Church Institutions (NCIs) are a collective group of bodies that together support the mission and ministries of the Church by working with those who serve in parishes, Dioceses, schools and other ministries, and with partners at a national and international level.

We aim for everyone who works in the NCIs to feel they belong and are valued for who they are and what they contribute.

Find out more about the National Church Institutions

The majority of NCI staff are based at Church House in Westminster, Lambeth Palace and Bishopthorpe Palace near York.

Meet some of us

Find out more about our offices across the UK

The National Church Institutions

Who are the NCIs and what do they do as part of the wider Church?

Our jobs

Benefits, Wellbeing and Development

Wellbeing to your life

Values, belonging and inclusion

Diversity of faith and background

Frequently asked questions

Get answers to our more frequently asked questions

Find work with joy on our dedicated careers website.

Discover a future you'll love

