Further information and national vacancies

The National Church Institutions (NCIs) are a collective group of bodies that together support the mission and ministries of the Church by working with those who serve in parishes, Dioceses, schools and other ministries, and with partners at a national and international level.

We aim for everyone who works in the NCIs to feel they belong and are valued for who they are and what they contribute.

Coronavirus update

To keep our visitors and colleagues safe and healthy, we are following the latest Government Guidance.

Please continue to view and apply for our vacancies and monitor what stage your application is at as normal, and we will endeavour to keep you up to date at all times. If you have a specific query, please email us at hr.recruitment@churchofengland.org and we will respond to you as soon as possible.

We are managing current vacancies by minimising the need for unnecessary travel and face to face contact. This includes conducting some interviews using Microsoft Teams or Zoom technology. We are maximising choice when possible, with many teams opting for a hybrid approach to their working week, with a mixture of home and office-based working.

We will keep you posted on any changes and publish updated information through the national Church's social media accounts.
