

There are 33 Church Commissioners, who have trustee responsibility for meeting our charitable obligations. Six of the Commissioners hold offices of state and the other 27 make up the Board of Governors, the main policy-making body.

Working with the Church Commissioners: an exploration event

Members of the Church Commissioners are hosting a special event at Manchester Cathedral on 1 May from 17:30 as part of their efforts to attract more Global Majority Heritage/UK Minoritised Ethnic people into executive and non-executive roles.

We want to become more diverse in a number of ways, so all are welcome to attend, though there is a particular focus at this event on our keenness to attract more GMH/UKME trustees and senior staff.

If you would like to attend, please email matt.chamberlain@churchofengland.org by 17 April 2024.
