

1 As the deer longs for the water brooks, [□]

so longs my soul for you, O God.

2 My soul is athirst for God, even for the living God; [□]

when shall I come before the presence of God?

3 My tears have been my bread day and night, [□]

while all day long they say to me, 'Where is now your God?'

4 Now when I think on these things, I pour out my soul: [□]

how I went with the multitude and led the procession to the house of God,

5 With the voice of praise and thanksgiving, [□]

among those who kept holy day.

6 Why are you so full of heaviness, O my soul, [□]

and why are you so disquieted within me?

7 O put your trust in God; [□]

for I will yet give him thanks,

who is the help of my countenance, and my God.

8 My soul is heavy within me; [□]

therefore I will remember you from the land of Jordan, and from Hermon and the hill of Mizar.

9 Deep calls to deep in the thunder of your waterfalls; [□]

all your breakers and waves have gone over me.

10 The Lord will grant his loving-kindness in the daytime; □

through the night his song will be with me, a prayer to the God of my life.

11 I say to God my rock,

'Why have you forgotten me, □ and why go I so heavily, while the enemy oppresses me?'

12 As they crush my bones, my enemies mock me; □

while all day long they say to me, 'Where is now your God?'

13 Why are you so full of heaviness, O my soul, □

and why are you so disquieted within me?

14 O put your trust in God; □

for I will yet give him thanks,

who is the help of my countenance, and my God.
