

Mentor Profile Sasha Reeves

My name is Sasha and I'm a curate serving within the Diocese of Oxford.

I have been fortunate enough to have wonderful mentors who have accompanied me through the discernment process and now as I serve my role as a curate. I have a particular interest in mentoring people who are either disabled, female or under 30. Of course, I am open to mentoring people who find themselves in other circumstances too. Â Having been diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis in my first year of ordination training and being the youngest ordinand there at the time, I come with some empathy for the challenges and joys that might be had in the vocations process.Â

I believe that I am an open, reflective, empathetic, and inquisitive mentor looking to focus on the areas which you want to explore and to go at a pace that works for you. I would be available to meet in person or via video call at a mutually convenient time.

Before working in ministry, I worked in a range of childcare settings and roles and currently mentor through a disability charity. I have worshipped in a variety of church traditions in the Church of England and find myself enjoying aspects of each of them, but I'm most comfortable in open evangelical settings. Outside of Church, I enjoy discovering and experimenting with new cooking and baking recipes and sharing my creations with friends and family. I enjoy visiting the theatre, reading, and doing crochet projects.

I am excited to discover with you what God might be calling you to and how he is at work within his people.
