We give you thanks, O God, we give you thanks,
for your name is near, as your wonderful deeds declare.

I, the Lord, will judge with equity.

it is I that hold her pillars steady.

and to the wicked, do not lift up your horn.

do not speak with a stiff neck.

nor yet from the wilderness comes exaltation.

he puts down one and raises up another.

well mixed and full of foaming wine.

they shall drink it, and drain the dregs.

and make music to the God of Jacob.

All the horns of the wicked will I break.
but the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.
