1 By the waters of Babylon we sat down and wept, when we remembered Zion.

2 As for our lyres, we hung them up on the willows that grow in that land.

3 For there our captors asked for a song, our tormentors called for mirth:

4 Sing us one of the songs of Zion.

5 How shall we sing the Lord's song in a strange land?

6 If I forget you, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget its skill.

7 If I set not Jerusalem above my highest joy, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth

8 If I do not remember you, if I set Jerusalem above my highest joy.

9 Remember, O Lord, against the people of Edom the day of Jerusalem, how they said, Down with it, down with it, even to the ground.

10 O daughter of Babylon, doomed to destruction, happy the one who repays you for all you have done to us;
Who takes your little ones,
and dashes them against the rock.
