

I can mentor women of ethnic black/African Caribbean heritage, with or without a disability.

I am very down to earth friendly easy to talk too person. Gently walk beside others as they travel their own journey.

I enjoy art, listening to music and trying out different food. My other interests are reading historical materials on culture and art and gardening on a shoe string.

I am available two evenings a week and most Saturday's afternoons.

I speak English and understand African pidgin, creole and patois.

My tradition is Anglo-Catholic but I am also able to work with others of other traditions for example evangelical.

I am also a teacher in a sixth form Catholic setting.
