

1 When I was in trouble I called to the Lord; [□]

I called to the Lord and he answered me.

2 Deliver me, O Lord, from lying lips [□]

and from a deceitful tongue.

3 What shall be given to you? [□]

What more shall be done to you, deceitful tongue?

4 The sharp arrows of a warrior, [□]

tempered in burning coals!

5 Woe is me, that I must lodge in Meshech [□] and dwell among the tents of Kedar.

6 My soul has dwelt too long [□]

with enemies of peace.

7 I am for making peace, [□]

but when I speak of it, they make ready for war.
