

Revd Jules Middleton, a curate at Trinity Church, Lewes, talks about walking in prayer around her community.

Jules explains the importance of vicars being a visible presence in their local community where people can ask them questions and know they are there for them. Her passion is seeing the power of prayer changing the way in which a community sees itself.

You can find out more about Trinity Church, Lewes by visiting their website.

Source URL: <https://www.churchofengland.org/faith-life/faith-action/faith-action-videos/visible-christian-presence-every-community>