

I am a family man, and with my wife, we have a set of twin teenage girls. I enjoy cycling and long reflective walks; not particularly the sporty type. Currently servicing my first year of curacy, having had a successful career, initially in the Fast Moving Consumer Goods industry and later running a business, all these prior to my vocational journey.

As an immigrant, and having come this far, makes me to realise there is a “force” within all of us, regardless of our background, current status or challenges, that when channelled properly makes for a better world. If you are reading this, our world is waiting for your gifts and I will like to walk along with you as an encourager, why not contact me and let us work together to see where God might be leading you?
