Preparation

O Lord, open our lips
All and our mouth shall proclaim your praise.

The Acclamation of Christ at the Dawning of the Day (page 108) may replace the Preparation as the start of Morning Prayer on any occasion.

One or more of the following is said or sung:

One of these prayers of thanksgiving (page 109),

Blessed are you, Sovereign God, creator of all,
to you be glory and praise for ever.
You founded the earth in the beginning and the heavens are the work of your hands.
In the fullness of time you made us in your image,
and in these last days you have spoken to us
in your Son Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh.
As we rejoice in the gift of your presence among us
let the light of your love always shine in our hearts, your Spirit ever renew our lives and your praises ever be on our lips.
Blessed be God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
AllBlessed be God for ever.

(or)

Blessed are you, creator of all,
to you be praise and glory for ever.
As your dawn renews the face of the earth bringing light and life to all creation, may we rejoice in this day you have made;
as we wake refreshed from the depths of sleep,
open our eyes to behold your presence and strengthen our hands to do your will,
that the world may rejoice and give you praise.
Blessed be God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
All Blessed be God for ever.

after Lancelot Andrewes (1626)

or a suitable hymn,
or A Song of God's Compassion

1 The Lord is full of compassion and mercy, □ slow to anger and of great kindness.

2 He will not always accuse us, □
neither will he keep his anger for ever.

3 He has not dealt with us according to our sins, □
nor rewarded us according to our wickedness.

4 For as the heavens are high above the earth, □
so great is his mercy upon those who fear him.

5 As far as the east is from the west, □
so far has he set our sins from us.

6 As a father has compassion on his children, □
so is the Lord merciful towards those who fear him.

7 For he knows of what we are made; □
he remembers that we are but dust.

8 Our days are but as grass; □
we flourish as a flower of the field;

9 For as soon as the wind goes over it, it is gone, □ and its place shall know it no more.

10 But the merciful goodness of the Lord is from of old and endures for ever on those who fear him, □
and his righteousness on children's children;

11 On those who keep his covenant □
and remember his commandments to do them.
Psalm 103.8-18

AllGlory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning is now
and shall be for ever. Amen.

This opening prayer may be said

The night has passed, and the day lies open before us;
let us pray with one heart and mind.

Silence is kept.

As we rejoice in the gift of this new day,
so may the light of your presence, O God,
set our hearts on fire with love for you;
now and for ever.
AllAmen.

The Word of God

Psalmody

The appointed psalmody is said.

Psalm 80

1 Hear, O Shepherd of Israel, ♦
you that led Joseph like a flock;

2 Shine forth, you that are enthroned upon the cherubim, ♦ before Ephraim, Benjamin and Manasseh.

3 Stir up your mighty strength ♦ and come to our salvation.

4 Turn us again, O God; ♦
show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.

5 O Lord God of hosts, ♦
how long will you be angry at your people's prayer?
6 You feed them with the bread of tears; you give them abundance of tears to drink.

7 You have made us the derision of our neighbours and our enemies laugh us to scorn.

8 Turn us again, O God of hosts; show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.

9 You brought a vine out of Egypt; you drove out the nations and planted it.

10 You made room around it, and when it had taken root, it filled the land.

11 The hills were covered with its shadow and the cedars of God by its boughs.

12 It stretched out its branches to the Sea and its tendrils to the River.

13 Why then have you broken down its wall, so that all who pass by pluck off its grapes?

14 The wild boar out of the wood tears it off, and all the insects of the field devour it.

15 Turn again, O God of hosts, look down from heaven and behold;

16 Cherish this vine which your right hand has planted, and the branch that you made so strong for yourself.

17 Let those who burnt it with fire, who cut it down, perish at the rebuke of your countenance.

18 Let your hand be upon the man at your right hand, the son of man you made so strong for yourself.

19 And so will we not go back from you; give us life, and we shall call upon your name.

20 Turn us again, O Lord God of hosts; show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.
Faithful shepherd of your people,
as we look for the light of your countenance, restore in us the image of your glory
and graft us into the risen life of your Son,
Jesus Christ our Lord.

Psalm 82

Refrain: Arise, O God, and judge the earth.

1 God has taken his stand in the council of heaven; in the midst of the gods he gives judgement:

2 'How long will you judge unjustly and show such favour to the wicked?

3 'You were to judge the weak and the orphan; defend the right of the humble and needy;

4 'Rescue the weak and the poor; deliver them from the hand of the wicked. R

5 'They have no knowledge or wisdom; they walk on still in darkness: all the foundations of the earth are shaken.

6 'Therefore I say that though you are gods and all of you children of the Most High,

7 'Nevertheless, you shall die like mortals and fall like one of their princes.’

8 Arise, O God and judge the earth, for it is you that shall take all nations for your possession.

Refrain: Arise, O God, and judge the earth.

God our deliverer,
when the foundations are shaken and justice has departed, defend the poor and needy
and give your people strength to fight all wrong in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.
Each psalm or group of psalms may end with

AllGlory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning is now
and shall be for ever. Amen.

If there are two Scripture readings, the first may be read here, or both may be read after the canticle.

Genesis 37.1–11

Jacob settled in the land where his father had lived as an alien, the land of Canaan. This is the story of the family of Jacob.

Joseph, being seventeen years old, was shepherding the flock with his brothers; he was a helper to the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father’s wives; and Joseph brought a bad report of them to their father. Now Israel loved Joseph more than any other of his children, because he was the son of his old age; and he had made him a long robe with sleeves. But when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably to him.

Once Joseph had a dream, and when he told it to his brothers, they hated him even more. He said to them, ‘Listen to this dream that I dreamed. There we were, binding sheaves in the field. Suddenly my sheaf rose and stood upright; then your sheaves gathered around it, and bowed down to my sheaf.’ His brothers said to him, ‘Are you indeed to reign over us? Are you indeed to have dominion over us?’ So they hated him even more because of his dreams and his words.

He had another dream, and told it to his brothers, saying, ‘Look, I have had another dream: the sun, the moon, and eleven stars were bowing down to me.’ But when he told it to his father and to his brothers, his father rebuked him, and said to him, ‘What kind of dream is this that you have had? Shall we indeed come, I and your mother and your brothers, and bow to the ground before you?’ So his brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept the matter in mind.

Canticle

A Song of Deliverance, or another suitable canticle, for example, number 40 (page 591), may be said

Refrain:

AllAll the earth, shout and sing for joy,
for great in your midst is the Holy One.

1 Behold, God is my salvation; ▲
I will trust and will not be afraid;

2 For the Lord God is my strength and my song, ▲
and has become my salvation.’

3 With joy you will draw water ▲ from the wells of salvation.
4 On that day you will say, □
Give thanks to the Lord, call upon his name;

5 Make known his deeds among the nations, □ proclaim that his name is exalted.

6 Sing God's praises, who has triumphed gloriously; □
let this be known in all the world.

7 Shout and sing for joy, you that dwell in Zion, □ for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel.'

Isaiah 12.2-6

All Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning is now
and shall be for ever. Amen.

All All the earth, shout and sing for joy,
for great in your midst is the Holy One.

Scripture Reading

One or more readings appointed for the day are read.
The reading(s) may be followed by a time of silence.

Galatians 1

Paul an apostle—sent neither by human commission nor from human authorities, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised him from the dead—and all the members of God's family who are with me,

To the churches of Galatia:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, who gave himself for our sins to set us free from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, to whom be the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting the one who called you in the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel—not that there is another gospel, but there are some who are confusing you and want to pervert the gospel of Christ. But even if we or an angel from heaven should proclaim to you a gospel contrary to what we proclaimed to you, let that one be accursed! As we have said before, so now I repeat, if anyone proclaims to you a gospel contrary to what you received, let that one be accursed!
Am I now seeking human approval, or God’s approval? Or am I trying to please people? If I were still pleasing people, I would not be a servant of Christ.

For I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that the gospel that was proclaimed by me is not of human origin; for I did not receive it from a human source, nor was I taught it, but I received it through a revelation of Jesus Christ.

You have heard, no doubt, of my earlier life in Judaism. I was violently persecuting the church of God and was trying to destroy it. I advanced in Judaism beyond many among my people of the same age, for I was far more zealous for the traditions of my ancestors. But when God, who had set me apart before I was born and called me through his grace, was pleased to reveal his Son to me, so that I might proclaim him among the Gentiles, I did not confer with any human being, nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were already apostles before me, but I went away at once into Arabia, and afterwards I returned to Damascus.

Then after three years I did go up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas and stayed with him for fifteen days; but I did not see any other apostle except James the Lord’s brother. In what I am writing to you, before God, I do not lie! Then I went into the regions of Syria and Cilicia, and I was still unknown by sight to the churches of Judea that are in Christ; they only heard it said, ‘The one who formerly was persecuting us is now proclaiming the faith he once tried to destroy.’ And they glorified God because of me.

A suitable song or chant, or a responsory in this or another form, may follow

Trust in the Lord with all your heart;
and be not wise in your own sight.

AllTrust in the Lord with all your heart;
and be not wise in your own sight.

In all your ways acknowledge him
and he will make straight your paths.

AllTrust in the Lord with all your heart.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

AllTrust in the Lord with all your heart;
and be not wise in your own sight.

from Proverbs 3

Gospel Canticle

The Benedictus (The Song of Zechariah) is normally said, or the Te Deum Laudamus (A Song of the Church) (page 636) may be said

Refrain:

AllYou have set us free to worship you without fear,
holy and righteous in your sight.

1Blessed be the Lord the God of Israel,

who has come to his people and set them free.
He has raised up for us a mighty Saviour, born of the house of his servant David.

Through his holy prophets God promised of old to save us from our enemies, from the hands of all that hate us,

To show mercy to our ancestors, and to remember his holy covenant.

This was the oath God swore to our father Abraham: to set us free from the hands of our enemies,

Free to worship him without fear, holy and righteous in his sight all the days of our life.

And you, child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High, for you will go before the Lord to prepare his way,

To give his people knowledge of salvation by the forgiveness of all their sins.

In the tender compassion of our God the dawn from on high shall break upon us,

To shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Luke 1.68-79

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning is now and shall be for ever. Amen.

Refrain:

You have set us free to worship you without fear, holy and righteous in your sight.
