

Find a church

Everyone in England lives in a Church of England parish. Read on to find out the information you need.

Finding your parish church is simple. A Church Near You is a national Church of England site containing information about parish churches and the services and events that take place there. They list every church in the Church of England with accurate maps, contact information, service times and much more. Your local Church of England minister will also be able to give you help and advice.
