

The Hyde Park Estate is owned by the Church Commissioners for England and is the secret corner of London's West End, located within a stone's throw of the glorious tranquillity of Hyde Park.

Read more about the Church Commissioners

The Estate is bounded by Sussex Gardens, Bayswater Road and Edgware Road and has a rich and varied architectural heritage. It includes the Connaught Village retail quarter with its unique wealth of boutiques, independent coffee shops, restaurants and art galleries.

These pages have been designed to provide visitors and prospective residents with information on the Estate. Visitors can find out more about the Hyde Park Estate Gardens and other surroundings. Alternatively, you can learn more about the history of the area and the Estate's Green Initiatives.

---

Source URL: *https://www.churchofengland.org/about/hyde-park-estate*