

Over the last year or so 'Leading your Church into Growth', LyCiG, has adopted this project so it is now called 'Leading your Evangelism into Growth' and there is a team who work on it together.

They aim to offer a bit of inspiration and lots of encouragement in this wonderful ministry. More than anything else they set out to teach people in the 'basic skills'. This is a course that works for experienced evangelists and those setting out. It is not just about evangelists however, we can all learn the basic skills. So parish clergy, youth workers and committed congregational members attend. All they need is a passion for this ministry and a Timothy-like willingness to 'do the work of an evangelist'.

The team is drawn from the full spectrum of churchmanship and operates in different social contexts. They are here to serve and stimulate the whole of the church.
