

You can run Generosity Week in your church to coincide with your Harvest Festival. As churches celebrate Harvest at different times this could be at any time between August to October. But if that doesn't work for you, don't let it put you off. We are called to be generous 365 days a year, so run it whenever suits you!

Take a look below at the various resources your church might use during Generosity Week.

You may wish to use all the resources available or just a selection. Resources include:

- Download a Generosity Week branded PowerPoint template

Podcasts, Reflections and Activities

You may wish to explore our Generosity Week podcasts as a church and reflect on how you would share your church's generous stories like those featured in the series. Or you may to encourage your community to listen in their own time and complete the daily challenges over the week. Explore the podcasts.

What happens after Generosity Week?

Generosity doesn't end after Generosity Week. Generosity is at the heart of our faith and we need to continuously consider the steps needed to build a generous church. We have created the following resources to help guide your church:
