

... actress Sally Phillips, who has been unexpectedly 'blessed' through her son; artist Charlie Mackesy, who has been totally surprised at the success of his best-selling book 'The Boy, The Mole, The Fox And The Horse'; footballer Marcus Rashford, who has amazed millions by his campaigning success.

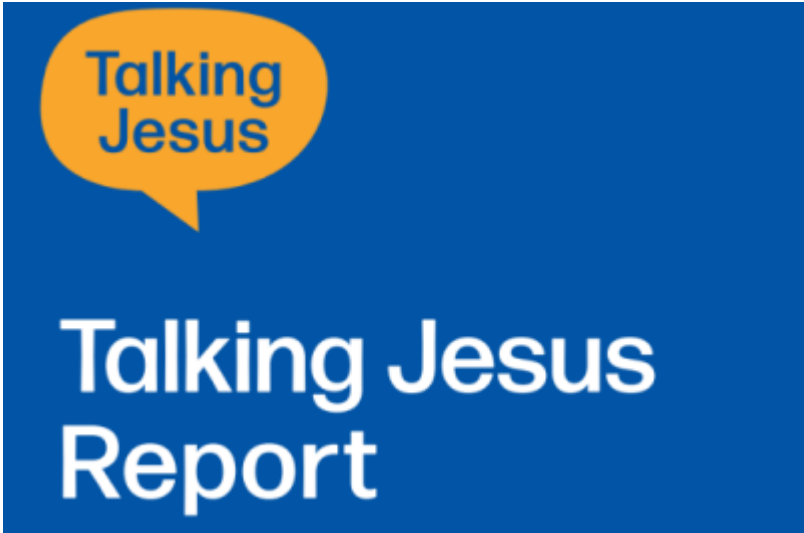

And of course, we focus on the most surprising story of all; the true story that's at the heart of Christmas: God became a man – born in a stable, surrounded by livestock, in a Middle Eastern town to an unmarried mum, with a message of hope and love for the world. Use HOPE for All as a free gift from your church to your community, together with an invitation to your Christmas events. Copies cost just 10p each and will be dispatched from the first week of November.
