

Read the latest news about the Reimagining Care Commission.

The views expressed on the Commission’s pages are those of Commission members and contributors and are not necessarily those of the Archbishops' or of the Church of England.

Text Search

Sort by

Title A -> Z?

Apply

1.

'Social care: asking the big questions' Church Times article with Dr Anna Dixon OBE

28/06/2022

Article in Church Times by Reimagining Commission Chair, Dr Anna Dixon OBE

1 min read

2.

A National Care Service? The Fabian Society Consultation on Social Care – Sian Lockwood’s response

17/10/2022

The Fabian Society recently launched a consultation on social care with responses to the consultation being used to help ‘develop a roadmap to a national care service for England’

9 min read

3.

Archbishop of Canterbury, Bishop of Carlisle give speeches during House of Lords debate on Adult Social Care

30/03/2023

The Archbishop of Canterbury and Bishop of Carlisle made speeches to the House of Lords Adult Social Care Committee on 30 March 2023.

1 min read

4.

Reimagining Care

Archbishops launch new Commission on Reimagining Care

19/04/2021

The Archbishops of Canterbury and York have today announced a new commission aimed at developing a radical and inspiring vision, drawing on Christian theology and tradition, that reimagines care and support.

5 min read

5.

Reimagining Care

Archbishops' Commission on Reimagining Care proposes set of values to inform vision for care and support in England

27/10/2021

The Archbishops' Commission on Reimagining Care has today launched a consultation on a set of values, informed by Christian theology and ethics, that it thinks should underpin a vision for care and support in England.

4 min read

6.

Reimagining Care

Archbishops' Commission reacts to publication of Government's White Paper on Adult Social Care Reform

03/12/2021

The Archbishops' Commission on Reimagining Care is pleased that the Government has published its White Paper on Adult Social Care Reform "People at the Heart of Care".

2 min read

7.

Building public support for social care reform: what can England learn from other countries?

15/03/2022

In this blog Natasha Curry, Deputy Director of Policy at the Nuffield Trust, considers the social care systems in Japan and Germany.

5 min read

8.

How complexity and jargon get in the way of good care

24/01/2022

Commission member Heléna Herklots discusses how current language and systems erect barriers to good outcomes for those those who draw on care and those that provide it, and what the Commission is considering by way of remedy.

3 min read

9.

Mutual relationships: their benefits and challenge to planners

25/04/2022

In this guest blog, Jenny Kartupelis MBE, author and Director of Faith in Society, explores what ‘mutuality’ means in practice and why it matters to planning for an ageing population.

3 min read

10.

Nothing new under the sun?

15/02/2022

In this blog, Jon Glasby, Professor of Health and Social Care at the University of Birmingham, and Director of ‘IMPACT’, looks back at previous social care reforms – and asks the Commission to think about how to make sure that things are different this time round.

5 min read

Pagination

- Current page 1
- Page 2
- Page 3
- Next page ➤
- Last page ➤ ➤