

As people engage in learning together using the Living in Love and Faith resources, we invite you to share your learning, insights and experience as part of the Church's discernment about a way forward.

When you have engaged with the Living in Love and Faith course together with others, please share your experiences and learning with the wider Church, by completing the online questionnaire before 30 April. The questionnaire is also available to download as a pdf document or as a word document.

You can also respond creatively as an individual or as a group! Do consider offering a creative response by registering on the LLF Learning Hub.
