

ChristianBSL.com have produced nine Christmas carols, led in British Sign Language by Deaf Christians, available for churches, schools, clubs, and groups to download and use for free. No additional licences required to use them in onsite or online services. Each carol has a downloadable lyric sheet, and for their children's carol, In A Town Called Bethlehem, in addition to the standard video and lyric sheet they've also included the sheet music for guitar and piano and special versions of the video with just back track so your choir and music group and accompany the BSL. Looking for some extra Advent and Christmas BSL vocab, the site has plenty! Find all their Advent and Christmas resources at: <https://christianbsl.com/christmas>
