

Measuring Lives Changed not just Bums on Seats webinar

Join Revd Heather Cracknell, Head of Development for Fresh Expressions and Samuel Verbi, Co-Founder of Eido Research

<https://www.eidoresearch.com> to hear how the desire to “measure what matters” took them on a journey of firstly, finding language to describe the transformation we hope to see in people’s lives when people encounter God and are on a faith journey as part of a Christian community, and then identifying ways of noticing when and where that transformation was occurring.

Learn about the Fruitfulness Framework and how it and other tools can help churches notice the impact God is having on the lives of those who are part of their community, and be inspired that Christian discipleship in its nuanced forms can be evidenced and celebrated.

Date and time: Monday 28 February, 2 - 3pm
