

Write your will for free online

Will writing can often seem like a time-consuming and difficult thing to do and that's a big reason why many people put it off. To make it easier, the Church of England has partnered with Farewill, the UK's favourite will writer, to offer a free online will writing service which you can do from the comfort of your home in less than 30 minutes.

Making a will and keeping it updated is the only way to make sure your wishes are carried out after your death, giving you peace of mind that you can continue to support the family, friends and charities you love.

We hope you'll consider leaving a gift to a local church you have loved to help its ministry and mission thrive for the benefit of future generations.

A Lasting Gift to your Church

After you have made provision for your friends and family, we hope you'll consider a gift in your will to a church that has been special to you.

Leaving a gift in your will to your church will help it serve the needs of your community long into the future. Our churches depend on the generosity of these gifts to carry out much needed refurbishments, launch outreach projects, grow their ministry and ministry.

Gifts in wills are already funding the work of God's Kingdom and making a huge difference. A legacy left to St Michael's Church, Alphington has transformed the building inside and out, providing a new suite of rooms that plays host to children's and youth work, a community café and new space for the bellringers.

About Farewill

Our Promises to You

We will respect your privacy at all times. By writing your will with Farewill, your details will not be shared with the Church of England.

If you use the Church of England will writing scheme, there is no obligation to leave a gift to a church in your Will. Your loved ones should always come first.

If you do choose to remember your local or a favourite church, thank you. Every gift, great or small, will make a real difference to that church and its mission and ministry in your community for future generations.

Please note that the number of free wills available is limited and allocated on a first-come, first served basis.

Planning Your Funeral

No matter how far away it may be, thinking about your own funeral service now and making your wishes known can be a comfort to you and your family in all sorts of ways. If you're thinking about sorting out your own funeral service plan, Our Church Funeral Planning Tool offers guidance on how to do that, and how it can really help your family when the time comes.

Your Funeral Wishes Planner

Remember, your funeral wishes are needed before your will is read, so please don't keep them with your will. Instead we suggest keeping them somewhere safe and letting your close family and friends know where to find them. More information is available at the Church of England Funerals Hub.
