

More than a million free prayer cards are being delivered to cathedrals and churches of all denominations to help people find comfort and hope.

The cards, which will be available for visitors in cathedrals and other churches, are designed to help people discover prayer - whether to express grief, loneliness or fear worry, or simply to say thank you.

They

are among resources produced by the Explore Project, an initiative shaped by people's experience of the pandemic.

It is part of a partnership involving the Association of English Cathedrals, the National Churches Trust, and the Centre for the Study of Christianity & Culture at the University of York among others.
