

A Service for the Third Sunday of Advent will be led by the Archbishop of York, Stephen Cottrell.

As we reflect on the hope of the Christmas story, join us from the chapel at Bishopthorpe Palace, for a service of comfort for those who may find this time of year difficult.

This video is manually subtitled. You can turn these on by clicking on the CC icon at the bottom right of the video. A red line will appear under the icon when subtitling has been enabled. The service is also BSL-interpreted throughout.
