

Archbishop Justin visited MHA Bradbury Grange for his New Year Message. It is a residential care home in Whitstable, in his own Canterbury diocese.

The Archbishop's New Year Message ties in with a report to be published on 24th January called Care and Support Reimagined. It has been commissioned by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York and offers a new vision for social care in which everyone can flourish, regardless of age or ability.

Read the full article on the Archbishop of Canterbury website.

Source URL: <https://www.churchofengland.org/about/archbishops-commissions/reimagining-care/news/caring-goes-heart-what-human-says-archbishop>