The introductory document GS 2249 by the Bishop of Leeds when the GRG report was brought for debate at the General Synod in February 2022.

The 1995 Governance Review - Working As One Body
"Working As One Body", referred to as The Turnbull Report, 1995, which gave rise to the current National Church governance structure, can be found here.

The Charity Governance Code
Good governance is fundamental to a charity's success. It enables and supports a charity's compliance with the law and relevant regulations. It also promotes a culture in which everything works towards fulfilling the charity's vision.

The Charity Governance Code is a practical tool to help charities and their trustees develop high standards of governance.
