" Your Majesty, I send my very best wishes and congratulations on the occasion of your Coronation. Over the years I have seen how much Your Majesty has done for this great nation, and indeed the whole Commonwealth, and greatly admire your relentless hard work and many charitable commitments. I hope you have the wonderful day that you deserve, and on account of the British weather Your Majesty may wish to keep upon his person sunglasses, raincoat, snow boots sunscreen and skis ☺☺ God Save the King!

" I hope you have a grand coronation, and I wish you keep our world safe. Technically keep Canada safe. I am happy for you. Queen Camillia you look so pretty in your dress, and King Charles III you look so handsome in your robe. I know your mommy and daddy is very happy in heaven! Thank you Queen Elizabeth II for King Charles. I am born on June 2, so my mommy calls me Lilibet the III...so giess what? We are both 3rds, my King Charles. We love you. Thanks for all your help. "
