

Join us for a special service from the Church of England alongside The Methodist Church. Marking the 21st anniversary of the Anglican-Methodist Covenant.

This service brings together stories from around the country, highlighting the transformative ecumenical partnerships between Anglican and Methodist communities.

Created in joint partnership by both churches, this celebration will share the powerful impact of unity and collaboration across our traditions, demonstrating how we continue to walk together in faith and mission.

Be part of this inspiring occasion as we reflect on our shared journey and renew our commitment to deeper fellowship.

Join our online community from 9am on Friday. This service has subtitles and BSL interpretation.
