

The churches have long been active in campaigning on gambling issues and trying to reduce the harms arising from the growth of gambling in society, both terrestrial and online. The document links below show how the story is unfolding.

storial concerns as well as key policy areas. Keep up here with what is

Documents

- Statement on the government consultation on fixed-odds betting terminals 171030 (30.56 KB)
- Note on the gambling consultation 171102 (175.54 KB)
- Response to the House of Lords' Call for Evidence on Gambling (369.48 KB)

There is a real opportunity in the next few days to help rid our high streets of the Fixed-Odds Betting Terminals on which you can bet £100 a time, every 20 seconds. The General Synod voted unanimously for a £2 maximum stake. The government has asked for responses to its consultation. The closing date for submission of responses is midday on Tuesday 23rd Jan, i.e. a week's time. The chance won't come again.

Visit the consultation website where you can respond either by completing an online survey, or by emailing them. If you want, you can just email with a simple response, for example, saying that you believe the maximum FOBT stake should be £2, and why.

Documents

- Why we believe Fixed-Odds Betting Terminals must have a maximum stake of £2.00 (378.81 KB)
- Proposals for changes to Gaming Machines and Social Responsibility Measures (569.67 KB)

