

1 As the deer longs for	for the water brooks, 🛘
so longs my soul for yo	ou, O God.
2 My soul is athirst fo	or God, even for the living God; 🏻
when shall I come befo	ore the presence of God?
3 My tears have beer	n my bread day and night, 🏻
while all day long they	say to me, 'Where is now your God?'
4 Now when I think o	on these things, I pour out my soul: 🏻
how I went with the mu	ultitude
and led the procession	n to the house of God,
5 With the voice of p	oraise and thanksgiving, 🏻
among those who kept	et holy day.
6 Why are you so full o	of heaviness, O my soul, 🛘
and why are you so disc	quieted within me?
7 O put your trust in (God; \square
for I will yet give him tho	anks,
who is the help of my co	ountenance, and my God.
8 My soul is heavy wi	rithin me; 🛘
therefore I will rememl	ber you from the land of Jordan, and from Hermon and	d the hill of Mizar.
9 Deep calls to deep	in the thunder of your waterfalls; 🏻
all your breakers and v	waves have gone over me.	——Page

10 The Lord will grant his loving-kindness in the daytime; □ through the night his song will be with me, a prayer to the God of my life.
11 I say to God my rock,
'Why have you forgotten me,
and why go I so heavily, while the enemy oppresses me?'
12 As they crush my bones, my enemies mock me; □
while all day long they say to me, 'Where is now your God?'
13 Why are you so full of heaviness, O my soul, □
and why are you so disquieted within me?
14 O put your trust in God; □
for I will yet give him thanks, who is the help of my countenance, and my God.
Come, creator Spirit, source of life;
sustain us when our hearts are heavy
and our wells have run dry,
for you are the Father's gift,
with him who is our living water,
Jesus Christ our Lord.
