RECORDS RETENTION SCHEDULE - SAFEGUARDING FUNCTION

New Reference Number	Activity	Transaction	Description	Manual Trigger	Retention Period	Date Type (Calendar, financial year, other)	Disposal Action	Personal Data	Justification for Retention based on Legal (Statute, regulation, code of practice), Business, Administrative or Historical requirement	Formats of data	Notes
SFG1	Advice (safeguarding non-casework rel	ated)
SFG1.1	Advice (safeguarding non-casework related)	Provision and receipt of advice	Records relating to the provision and receipt of non-case related, non-legal advice on safeguarding.	Date of Issue	3 Years	Calendar	Destroy	No	Business - to support safeguarding processes and ensure that decisions were based upon good practice.	Electronic - Usually email
SFG2	Advocacy	T			1					T
SFG2.1	Advocacy	Undertaking advocacy case work - notebooks	Notes recorded in notebooks during the process of providing advocacy to the Survivor during the Safeguarding process. They will contain information that the survivor has disclosed to the advocate that are not part of the case.	Until Superseded (notes typed up and added to filing system).	1 Year	Calendar	Destroy	Yes	Legal - based on retention period indicated in the report from the Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse - Aligned with the Case Management records of evidence that the Survivor was provided with adequate confidential advocacy support.		To ensure compliance with data protection and good records management practices. Notebooks should be treated as follows.  1. Ideally case note books should only hold details relating to cases, any other general work related note taking not directly related to case work should be kept separately.  2. Notes should clearly reference the specific case they relate to.  3. Notes should be written up as soon as practicable and stored in a structured filing system.  4. When notes have been transferred the page should be crossed out with a marker to indicate that they have been written up and appropriately filed.  5. Before destruction all pages should be reviewed to ensure that the notes have been transcribed.  6. Notebooks must be retained until all notes have been typed up and filed, and can then be destroyed.
SFG2.1	Advocacy	Undertaking advocacy case work - electronic notes	Notes taken when in discussion during the process of providing advocacy to the Survivor during the Safeguarding process. They will contain information that the survivor has disclosed to the advocate that are not part of the case. Includes notes typed up from physical notebooks.	Close of Case	75 years	Calendar	Destroy	Yes	Legal - based on retention period indicated in the report from the Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse - Aligned with the Case Management records of evidence that the Survivor was provided with adequate confidential advocacy support.	Electronic - Word documents, emails
SFG3	Case Management
SFG3.1	Case Management	Case allocation and planning	Records relating to the administration of complex casework allocation, including allocation lists	End of current year	6 Years	Calendar	Destroy	Yes	Administration - to support the case allocation process	Electronic

	,									1
SFG3.2	Case Management	Concerns - church officers	Records that relate to concerns that are determined not to be safeguarding issues.	Date of concern	1 Year	Calendar	Destroy	Yes	Business - following best practice from NSPCC, Save the Children and Local Government Legal - Article 5 UK GDPR (Storage limitation).	Electronic - Not held on MY Concern	If an issue becomes a safeguarding case then will be transferred to a case file.
SFG3.3	Case Management	Concerns - non church officers	Records relating to any initial information that relates to individuals who are non-church officers.	Last Action	1 Year	Calendar	Destroy	Yes	Legal - Legal advice received from Stephen Scowns LLP (2023).	Electronic - Not on the My Concern system	This relates to any documents relating to incidents that are reported to the safeguarding team that do not involve matters relating to Church Officers. Data controllers are not responsible for retaining records on behalf of statutory agencies, there are no duties beyond the reporting of these matters.
SFG3.4	Case Management	Concerns - Tenants	Any initial information that relates to conerns about individuals that are Tenants or prospective tenents. Includes reports and referrals to the Local Authority Safeguarding Team. Application forms and communications with individuals and probabtion officers.	End of tenancy	6 Year	Calendar	Destroy	Yes	Legal - Limitations Act 1980 (Simple Contract) Legal - Article 5 UK GDPR (Storage Limitation)	Electronic - QL Housing Management System, Shared Drive, Email. Physical - Tennancy file	PB Housingare not responsible for retaining record on behalf of statutory agencies, we have not duty beyond the reporting of these matters.
SFG3.5	Case Management	Individual cases - no further actions	Records relating to the safeguarding matters that have been deemed to require no further action.	Date NFA decision confirmed	2 Years	Calendar	eview/Destr	Yes	Stephen Scowns LLP (2023) Article 5 UK GDPR (Data Minimisation) - It is necessary to minimise the data held.	Electronic - Held on MY Concern
SFG3.6	Case Management	Individual cases - no further action reduced record	Minimised data from records recording a safeguarding matter that was deemed as requiring no further action.	Date of review	75 Years	Calendar	Destroy	Yes	Legal - Legal advice received from Stephen Scowns LLP (2023).	Electronic - Held on MY Concern	The details of what constitutes minimised date can be found in the My Concern Guidelines.  System must be reviewed and functionality updated as soon as practicable to enable effective data minimisation.
SFG3.7	Case Management	Individual cases	Records of safeguarding case investigations. Includes: notes, correspondence with victims, correspondence with alleged perpetrators, safeguarding casework reports, minutes of core group meetings, risk assessments etc.	Close of case	75 Years	Calendar	Destroy	Yes	Legal - based on retention period indicated in the report from the Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse.	Electronic - Held on MY Concern
SFG3.8	Case Management	Management of case officer notebooks	Any notebooks that a case officer uses to record details of the cases that they are working on.	Until Superseded (notes typed up and added to filing system).	1 Year	Calendar	Destroy	Yes	Administration - to ensure that all relevant information is written up or scanned and transferred to the My Concern System -which is the official case record.  Legal - Article 5 UK GDPR (Storage limitation).	Physical - Notebooks	To ensure compliance with data protection and good records management practices. Notebooks should be treated as follows.  1. Ideally case note books should only hold details relating to cases, any other general work related note taking not directly related to case work should be kept separately.  2. Notes should clearly reference the specific case they relate to.  3. Notes should be written up/scanned into the case management system as soon as practicable.  4. When notes have been transferred the page should be crossed out with a marker to indicate that they have been written up in the CMS.  5. Before destruction all pages should be reviewed to ensure that the notes have been transcribed.  6. Notebooks must be retained until all notes have been typed up and filled, and can then be destroyed.

SFG4	Safeguarding Complaints
SFG4.1	Safeguarding Complaints	Complaints	Records relating to the management of complaints relating to safeguarding activities.	Close of complaint	6 Years	Calendar	Destroy	No	Legal - Limitation Act 1980 (Tort).	Electronic	Complaints about the safeguarding process should align with the NCI complaints process.  Records of queries into general safeguarding matters will fall under Communications Function.
SFG5	SFG5 Safeguarding Practice Reviews
SFG5.1	Individual Practice Review	Investigations - investigation process	Records of evidence collected or created relating to the investigations of cases where a review has been undertaken.	Completion	75 Years	Calendar	Destroy	Yes	Legal - based on retention period indicated in the report from the Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse.
SFG5.2	Individual Practice Review	Investigations - reporting	Reports relating to the outcome of the review.	Publication of the report	Permanent	Calendar	Archive	Possible	Historical - has significant value as to how safeguarding matters are dealt with by the Church. Legal - Article 89 UK GDPR (Archive).	Electronic
SFG5.3	Individual Practice Review	Practice review process	Records relating to the review process. Including: policies and procedures, the initial establishment of the process, terms of reference of the review, appointments of reviewers in accordance with the requirements of the SPR Policy etc.	Completion	6 Years	Calendar	Destroy	Yes	Business - required post report publication to justify the detail of the outputs/reports.	Electronic
SFG5.4	Individual Case Review	Post case implementation	Records relating to the post case implementation of reviews. Includes: action plans, implementation documents and reports etc.	Completion	Permanent	Calendar	Archive	Possible	Historical - include evidence of failures that result in practice improvement. Legal - Article 89 UK GDPR (Archive).	Electronic
SFG6.1	National Past Case Reviews and Audits								'
SFG6.1	National Past Case Reviews and Audits	Reviews and audit - procedural documents	Records relating to the procedures implemented in any national audits or reviews.	Completion	6 Years	Calendar	Destroy	Yes	Business - required post report publication to justify the detail of the outputs/reports.	Electronic
SFG6.2	National Past Case Reviews and Audits	Reviews and audits - review process	Records relating to the checks and investigations.	Completion	Permanent	Calendar	Archive	Yes	Historical - includes evidence of failures that result in practice improvement.  Legal - Article 89 UK GDPR (Archive).	Electronic
SFG6.3	National Past Case Reviews and Audits	Reviews and audit - Reporting	Records relating to review and audit reporting of national past case reviews. Includes: any reports or outcomes of reviews etc.	Date of Publication	Permanent	Calendar	Archive	No	Historical - includes evidence of failures that result in practice improvement. Legal - Article 89 UK GDPR (Archive).	Electronic
SFG6.4	National Past Case Reviews and Audits	Post case implementation	Records relating to the post case implementation process. Includes: action plans, implementation documents and reports etc.	Completion	Permanent	Calendar	Archive	Possible	Historical - includes evidence of failures that result in practice improvement. Legal - Article 89 UK GDPR (Archive).	Electronic
SFG7	Statutory or Judicial Inquiries

SFG7.1	Statutory or Judicial Inquiries  Statutory or Judicial Inquiries	Providing evidence for an inquiry  Inquiry - reporting	Records created specifically for the review or judicial inquiry. This does not include pre-existing records or documents gathered as part of the process. Records relating to the post inquiry implementation reporting process. Includes: any reports or outcomes of inquiries	Completion	Permanent	Calendar	Archive	Yes	Historical - includes evidence of failures that result in practice improvement. Legal - Article 89 UK GDPR (Archive). Historical - includes evidence of failures that result in practice improvement Legal - Article 89 UK GDPR	Electronic Paper Electronic Paper	When transferred to the archive the records will be closed for a minimum period of 100 years.
SFG7.3	Statutory or Judicial Inquiries	Post inquiry implementation	etc. Records relating to the post inquiry implementation process. Includes: action plans, implementation documents and reports etc.	Completion	Permanent	Calendar	Archive	Possible	(Archive). Historical - includes evidence of failures that result in practice improvement Legal - Article 89 UK GDPR (Archive).	Electronic Paper
SFG8	Supervision Management		I=							1
SFG8.1	Supervision Management	Professional supervision	Records relating to the supervision process. This includes the supervision forms and any case work included in supervision.	Termination of Employment	75 Years	Calendar	Destroy	Yes	Legal - based on retention period indicated in the report from the Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse.
SFG9	Survivor Support
SFG9.1	Survivor Support	Interim support scheme application process	Records relating to the interim support scheme application process. Includes: applications for support and related correspondence.	Close of case or last payment	12 Years	Calendar	Destroy	Yes	Legal - Limitations Act 1980 (Tort General Rule) - these generally relate to financial transactions. Business - To protect the AC from repeated and fraudulent claims.	Electronic Paper
SFG10	Victim and Survivor Engagement	•								'
SFG10.1	Victim and Survivor Engagement	Ad-hoc engagement work	Records relating to ad-hoc engagements and consultations.	Completion of outputs	6 Years	Calendar	Destroy	yes	Business - monitoring and oversite of the consultations process.	Electronic
SFG10.2	Victim and Survivor Engagement	Communications with victim and survivors	Records relating to the communications with victims and survivors. Includes correspondence with victims and survivors, newsletters etc.	End of year	3 Years	Calendar	Destroy	Yes	Business - required to evidence the outcomes of the engagement. Legal - Limitations Act 1980 (defamation and malicious falsehood).	Electronic Paper
SFG10.3	Victim and Survivor Engagement	Ongoing engagement work	Records relating to the ongoing participation and volunteering.	Completion of work	6 Years	Calendar	Destroy	Possible	Business - required to support output of the reports, will be required post report publication to justify the detail of the outputs/reports.	Electronic
SFG10.4	Victim and Survivor Engagement	Reporting on the engagement work	Reports and outputs of consultations and engagements.	End of Consultation	Permanent	Calendar	Archive	No	Historical - these report will impact on decision making in relation to Safeguarding as such have an historical value to evidence how safeguarding practices changed over time across the Church.	Electronic	These records must not contain any identifiable personal data.