

ADDENDUM TO THE STANDING ORDERS OF THE HOUSE OF BISHOPS

OCTOBER 2010 EDITION

Copies are attached of the amendments made by the House of Bishops to its Standing Orders in May 2013.

Standing Order 12 (Attendance of Other Persons)

In Standing Order 12 insert after Standing Order 12(d) –

“(e) Eight female clergy, elected in accordance with rules to be made by the House, may attend and address the House. Not being members of the House they shall not be entitled to a vote in the proceedings of the House.”

Standing Order 6 (Standing Committee)

In Standing Order 6 insert after Standing Order 6(a) –

“(aa) One of the female clergy having the right to attend sittings of the House under SO 12(f), chosen in accordance with rules made by the House, may attend and address meetings of the Standing Committee. Not being members of the House they shall not be entitled to a vote in the proceedings of the Standing Committee.”