

Are you wondering how to access your pension and what options are available to you?

Taking the right steps now could put you miles ahead in the future.

Introducing the LV= Retirement Advice Service

To help you understand and navigate your retirement options we have been appointed by the Church of England Pensions Board to provide retirement advice and services.

LV= is passionate about making pensions and retirement options clear and straightforward. Our advisers can give advice on all types of pensions, no matter what your needs or circumstances.

You can have confidence in your retirement decisions knowing that we will give you impartial and trusted advice. We can recommend the best solutions for you using options available from the Church of England pension schemes, LV= and a range of other leading providers.

Who are LV= Retirement Advice Service?

LV= Retirement Advice Service offer a range of pension and investment products from the Liverpool Victoria Group of companies. We also offer investment products from a limited number of other companies, and annuity products from the whole of market. Our team includes over 50 people: including the friendly team who will take your call, retirement advisers, pension transfer specialists and an efficient admin team who put our recommendations into action.

What services do we offer?

- ✓ Advice on transferring pensions
- ✓ Advice on retirement options from a Church of England scheme
- ✓ Advice on flexible retirement options, including drawdown
- ✓ Buying an annuity (with or without advice)
- ✓ Options on non-Church of England pensions (both personal and from previous employers)

If you have a general (non-retirement) query about the Church of England scheme, or wish to arrange retirement directly with the Church of England schemes (without advice), then please contact your pension scheme directly.

For Church of England pension scheme members we have agreed competitive fixed fees for our advice. The cost of our services will be clearly explained to you and we'll be pleased to answer any questions you may have.

We hope to hear from you soon!
