Dear Mr Andrew

Mission and Pastoral Measure
Proposed Pastoral Re-organisation - Diocese of Portsmouth
St Clare's, Warren Park, St Francis, Leigh Park & St Alban's, West Leigh

I enclose a Bundle of papers and supporting documents from St Francis PCC.

You will see the covering letter from Alison Watson, the PCC Secretary and both the submission and supporting schedules of papers.

This bundle is sent with the agreement and approval of both St Francis PCC and also the PCC of St Clare, Warren Park.

Both PCCs and I oppose the proposed scheme of pastoral reorganisation.

Yours sincerely

The Revd Jonathan Jeffery
Vicar of Leigh Park & Warren Park

Instead of it being 626 when I printed, it's now gained an extra 130 from the meeting and an added 15 online so now it stands at actually 771 which is absolutely amazing guys. We have people signing from all over the world the US, Australia, Morocco, Italy, United Arab Emirates as well as the UK. Words cannot describe how happy and totally grateful I am that these 2 fantastic people are getting the support and recognition they deserve. Once again thank you so much

Charlotte Parker is feeling positive with Marilyn Jeffrey and 3 others.

This is a petition to help save the vicars of Our Community Churches St Francis, St Claires and St Albans. From Redundancy by November next year, they do so much for our Community lets do this by saying thank you and we need you still to carry on the fantastic jobs and projects they do.

It would be disastrous to get rid of such caring and sensitive man as Johnathan Jeffery. Please do not make such a man redundant
- Christine Cox Nov 3, 2018

Please help these two excellent priests find a new church where their considerable talents will be put to good use.
- Stephen Adams Nov 05, 2018 utterly ridiculous that people who do so much for their local community can be treated with such little respect.

- Christine Smith Nov 05, 2018

We were sorry to hear about Jonathons propossed leaving of his church, and community in Leigh Park. We met him several times when he conducted my father in laws funeral in May, he was very various and understanding at a sad time for us all. I do hope this petition is successful and him and his family are able to continue to stay at the church, such uncertain times for his parishioners.

Both are needed to carry on their great work in the community
- Susan Jenkins Nov 04, 2018

As an outsider, I cannot begin to understand the workings of the Church but I have known Jonathan for about 30 years and I do know that, a kinder, more compassionate and committed member of the Church and his local community would be very hard to find. Carolyn and the children have always played a full part in supporting him in his role and will all be affected by this decision.

In these days of dwindling church numbers Jonathan is exactly the sort of hands-on vicar the Church sorely needs and should consider themselves lucky to have him and his wife and family who all play a part in the local community.

I have known Jonathan for over 30 years. He is a fine vicar and both he and his family have demonstrated a sustained commitment to the people of Leigh Park. On a personal level he conducted my mother's funeral with dignity and compassion which was a great comfort to me at the time. It is therefore with dismay that I heard of the diocese plans to refigure the ministry in Leigh Park and Warren Park with the likely outcome of losing both Jonathan and Karina who have done so much for these communities. The diocese have behaved in a shabby and dishonourable manner and I would urge them to reconsider their position.

I am not a committed Christian and have no particular faith. However, this is not about being a Christian. It's about a committed human being who had dedicated his working life to helping others some of whom do not always have the wherewithal to help themselves. If these two good people are redundant what will happen to all the individuals, old and young, lonely and with families, who will no longer have the contact from them that they need. Please reconsider. I am quite sure that the Church can make savings elsewhere

Jonathan is an exceptional priest, and one of the best examples of a sincerely held vocation and what that can do in contributing to his community and promoting the Church more widely.

I find it astonishing that Jonathan is not being held high by the Diocese as a shining example of what can be achieved in life by being a genuine Christian. It seems unbelievable that they would contemplate letting such a man slip through their fingers. Jonathan is generous, loving and intelligent, a kind and thoughtful man who has devoted his life to caring for others in an entirely selfless way. I am proud to be amongst Jonathan's many friends and I sincerely hope that the local community will not lose such an inspirational man.

I cannot thank Jonathan enough for the compassion and support he gave my Nan. When the time was near for my Nan to depart, Jonathan visited her as much as our family.

Oct 27, 2018

Penelope Smith

It beggars belief that the Diocese, instead of supporting and working with Jonathan, seeks to restructure (and, as I understand it, consequently obtain funding for) the way the Church elicits commitment from the parishioners of Leigh Park by effectively making him redundant and having to apply for a position in the new structure, with no guarantee of success. This is a vicar whose many years' commitment to the people of Leigh Park and work in the community, as can be demonstrated by his understanding of the issues they encounter in their daily lives and the love and support the people of Leigh Park have for him, (be they Church goers or not) should be applauded and embraced by the Bishop, Archdeacon and others responsible for implementing this initiative. Change of itself is not the issue. However, wasting such an asset and irreplaceable resource for Leigh Park such as Jonathan most definitely is. If the result is Jonathan is forced to leave Leigh Park then shame on the Diocese and the Church.

As a non religious man it would be easy for me not to sign...the churches and in particular the vicars though, are not merely about bleating from an old scripture...they offer solidarity and comfort for people in times of need...and for 2 people to lose their jobs based on money seems senseless and moreover not a very Christian decision on behalf of the church, if faith is supposed to guide people to make the right choices...i would challenge the decision to remove the community vicars and question if the decision is in line with the morality the church seemingly portrays looks to me that they want the christian faith to vanish.

We NEED both to remain , serving the community .

Our churches are important to the whole of the community, one church would not be enough to serve everybody, with more housing being planned. Also with plans to move the Beacon Church out of the Meridian Centre, someone may need to take up the work they do.

St Francis church for me is a family orientated church. It has held many a family occasion, marriage, christening or most recently a funeral of a weekly church attendant! St Francis church is a community based church in Leigh park and has been for many, many years. Please don't break a tradition of a lifetime and a place that is close to many a regulars hearts!!!

My husband & I married at this church 31 years ago. Our 2 children were christened there as was our grandson. We have attended many other weddings & christenings with either family or friends & have attended functions in the adjoining hall including our own wedding reception. My mother in law attended this church every week until her unfortunate passing earlier this year & also her mother too attended regularly. This church will be a great loss to the community as will the vicar (father Jonathan) who has been a great comfort not only to our family but many more besides I'm sure. To whomever makes these decisions rash or otherwise I would like to think a major rethink is needed x

I imagine the parishioners understand that the churches' dynamics have changed over the years but their numbers will never grow again without clergy. Jonathan and his family have been at the heart of this community for many years; not just in Church but working with other agencies as a representative of the Diocese and of the people of Leigh Park and Warren Park to improve and create opportunities for all. To treat someone that has done so much good for the Deanery, Diocese and community in this manner is short sighted, dismissive and disgraceful. Shame on you Church of England!

C.o.e being stripped apart every day

Oct 09, 2018

Helen Young

These are two wonderful vicars. They are so kind and caring and are both really needed by this community. I cannot believe that they are both facing redundancy. This would be a massive loss to Leigh Park, Warren Park and West Leigh. Karina has been so kind to me personally recently and is a wonderful vicar. She has helped many other people too. Father Jonathan is a wonderful man, who loves helping people spiritually and in practical ways too with his involvement with the food bank run from Saint Francis Church. Please, please reverse this decision!

Father Jonathan has always been a massive part of our Leigh park community please save him !

Paul McLeod

Is nothing safe from austerity, cut backs. These people are invaluable to people in the community. It's not just people of the same faith that go to them for help. They are an asset, a community resource. They should be acknowledged, recognised, protected and kept for the sake of the community well being. Too many resources have been cut, charities can't cope. They are needed. Whilst I'm not at all religious I worked alongside their predecessors for many years on the estate. Their support is invaluable and the communitys need and respect for them is priceless.

Paula Critchett

Stop tearing our communities apart.
 Try cutting the top knobs wages who do nothing for the community and give it to those that really do make a difference doing a meaningful job.

 If the current system struggles at times how can you decrease capabilities. The people that will suffer are the 1000's of people in the community some vulnerable through no fault of their own. Looking at just this one group shows how I'll throughout this decision is. The communities that these parishes are in are the most densely populated with low income families in the UK.

Father Johnathan does so much in the community and is such a kind caring man. He's a regular visitor at the school I work in and the children adore him, listening intently to his wonderful, witty stories. My 20 year old daughter remembers him fondly, as he was as massive part of her childhood memories from school, from taking part in Christmas nativities at church, to harvest festivals in school assemblies. This is a travesty! A never ending decline in holding the community together. We will soon be a ghost town, a place people forgot. Such a shame! Kind regards, best wishes and all the luck to you all in your campaign.

Father Johnathan is absolutely amazing he has been involved with my family for years. He conducted my grandad's Funeral gave him a beautiful farewell and took us into consideration made sure my Nan's wishes were met as well as my grandad's, a few years later he baptized my brother and sister, then 3yrs ago my own Daughter. He's also helped along the way with the hiring of the Halls for any occasion we have planned. Nothing is ever a problem no matter how small, he is truly an amazing man and has worked closely with the fellow deacons and parishes in the smooth running of both Churches St Francis and St Claire's for many years. I feel very strongly that he should remain and carry on doing an absolutely brilliant job. Many Thanks C Parker

In a spirit of Christian fraternity and gratitude I write on behalf of the Catholic Parish of St Michael and All Angels, Leigh Park, Havant. For many years we have been glad to work harmoniously and effectively in Christian Mission with our Church of England companions in this area. As there are very particular spiritual, social, pastoral and economic needs locally it has been encouraging to know of immediate, practical and significant aid to our own work from the local Anglican clergy and congregations. During my three years in this Parish I have experienced directly the willingness of Rev Jonathan Jeffery and Rev Karina Green to join in the work that we share, while respecting the traditions that distinguish us and, most emphatically, to serve the whole local community in the name of Jesus Christ. This has been exemplified by united worship when opportunities have presented, shared social activities enjoyed by many parishioners and a mutual commitment to Christian witness in a world where it is not always immediately welcome but where it is so evidently necessary.

I hope and pray that the work of the Church of England and its ministers in this area will continue to build on its years of experience in dealing with very particular demands and expectations. I am grateful for the affirmation of these hopes from many of our own parishioners. They join me in prayer for the work of the Church of England as it reviews how best to serve God and our neighbours here in Leigh Park and West Leigh.

Having just got back from the Starlight Festival, it must be time again to recognise the amount of work, time, energy & love that Jonathan & Carolyn put into this community - they extend themselves on behalf of the community and people follow - hopefully this will eventually be recognised the powers that be Norma Hunt So pleased you've posted a comment. It was a busy but well attended event. Enjoyed by all.

I was thinking last night. The church hierarchy decided this cause of action. There's nothing to say they can't choose to stop proceedings. Change tack at any point. Surely with the level of opposition to their plans to make Father Jonathan and Karina redundant, the consistent opposition wouldn't they save time and worry if they responded to over whelming opposition. If I'm right they'll not have had even one parishioner stating being in favour of their plans. If they've had any encouragement it would be from a limited few. Id question those peoples reasons, sucking up to the powers that be - personal gain from change? Give the parishioners what they want now. Doing so before Christmas would be very apt.
