

Year	Tasks
2017	Groups are established, Terms of Reference agreed
2018	Working Groups address human identity, sexuality and marriage from the perspectives of biblical studies, theology, history and social and biological sciences, producing a range of in depth papers
	Co-ordinating group initiates consultation with other churches and other faiths
	Co-ordinating Group commissions and implements the Wider Participation process
	Co-ordinating Group agrees the shape and structure of the project
	Engagement with the College and House of Bishops and with General Synod in February and July.
2019	Working groups are reconfigured into interdisciplinary groups which address key questions and reflect theologically on the lived experiences gathered from the Wider Participation process
	Individuals are commissioned to write sections of the Living in Love and Faith book. A small editorial team brings these together.
	Work on other forms of resources (films, podcasts) takes place
	Draft materials are road-tested and peer reviewed by a range of readers
	Draft materials are road-tested and discussed by the College and House of Bishops
	Engagement with the College and House of Bishops and with General Synod in February and July.
2020	Final shaping by College and House of Bishops
	Engagement with General Synod in February and July
	Production of study guides
	Final design and production work
	Publication
	Dissemination