

The New National Giving Strategy

opportunities for parishes, benefices and dioceses

The Church of England is investing up to £7.5M over the next five years in a new national strategy to encourage giving and generosity in its churches. Jonathan de Bernhardt Wood, National Advisor for Giving and Income Generation, will give a presentation on the strategy, and answer any questions on it and its implementation.

Members of the national giving team will also be available to offer advice and guidance on issues including contactless giving, legacies, grants and Parish Buying.
